A COCKTAIL PORTFOLIO

VOL. I

B E H I N D K O R E L

For me, creating has always been about more than making a good cocktail.

KOREL is an extension of who I am—my creativity, my family, the memories I've made, and my willingness to keep trying something new.

I'm inspired by moments. A conversation. A celebration.
A familiar flavor that brings back a memory. A new ingredient I've never worked with before. Sometimes the smallest experience can become the beginning of an idea.

Behind the bar, I've learned that some of the best creations come from being willing to experiment. I like taking flavors people recognize and finding a different way to bring them together—trying, adjusting, tasting, and sometimes starting over until everything feels right.

Family and memorable times are a big part of what drives me.
They remind me that food and drinks aren't only about what we taste.
They're often connected to the people we were with and the moments we don't forget.

That's what I want KOREL to represent.

Creativity. Connection. Memories.
And never being afraid to try something new.
